ROCKS

OCTOBER 13 - - It was a beautiful week end. Farmers started sowing wheat last week but the rain caught their hay.

Rev. Donald Wagner and Cassie Baldwin attended the Executive Board meeting of the Appomattox Association at Liberty Church on last Monday night.

The Friendship Circle had their meeting with Mrs. Robert Roach on Tuesday afternoon with two new members in the circle. A group of Acteens from Rocks attended the meeting at Spout Spring Baptist Church on last Monday night.

Rev. W. H. Elder attended the pastors conference at Hollywood Baptist Church last Monday morning. In the afternoon he called to see Mrs. C. R. Banton.

The Rocks Quartet furnished special music for the revival at Elon Church on Thursday night.

Samuel Dickerson was in Pennsylvania last week on a business trip.

A large crowd attended the Group I WMU meeting at Rocks Church last Wednesday. The missionary speaker, Rev. Samuel James of Vietnam brought a very inspiring message. Mrs. Jeanette Balthasar brought a fine devotional message and a solo.

The meeting closed with a solo by Rev. Don Wagner, pastor of the host church. He also had prayer and the blessings.

Mrs. Alese Cumby spent Thursday night with Mrs. Clarence Richardson. They were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Dave Goin the same afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Ranson and Mrs. Lockie Moore left Friday to spend the week end in West Virginia.

Cassie Baldwin called to see Mrs. C. R. Banton awhile on Friday afternoon.

A speedy recovery is wished Ralph Kress who is in the hospital in Lynchburg. Also David Hix and Charlie Bates.

A number from here attended the Railroad Festival at Appomattox on Surday morning. The Rocks Quartet won the third trophy there Saturday.

BROTHERS MEET AGAIN AFTER 29 YEARS

James Collins and his brother, Dick Collins, got together recently for the first time in twenty years. James Collins, left above, lived in Los Angeles, Calif., for twenty years before moving to Pamplin and his brother had lived in Boston, Mass.

Recently Dick Collins, right above, came down to Pamplin to visit his brother and we got this photo Saturday night. They were really pleased to be together after such a long time as distance and poor health had kept them apart.

James Collins is married to the former Miss Hallie Payne of Pamplin.

Philip Inge, of near Washington, was visiting his parents the latter part of the week.

The Rocks Quartet went to New Chapel Church to furnish a program of gospel music Saturday night.

Rev. W. H. Elder preached at Elon Baptist Church at Pamplin Sunday morning in the absence of the pastor, Rev. John Campbell who was away.

Cassie Baldwin attended the homecoming at Falling River Church on Sunday and called to see Mr. and Mrs. Hutson Dickerson while there.

Mrs. Louise Wagner left Monday for North Carolina to spend a few days with her son and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Roach received word on October 1 that a relative, Letcher Bryant, of Michigan, had passed away. He was born on Sept. 30, 1882. He was buried on October 3 in Sunfield, Mich. He is survived by his wife, Viola Meadows; son, Bryant; one nephew, Macon Fears. The funeral was held in Lake Odessa, Mich. Sympathy is extended the family.
